Generation No. 1

1. Alain<sup>1</sup> Jardelat<sup>1</sup>. He married Marie Guerique<sup>2,3</sup> Bef. 1720 in France<sup>4</sup>.

Notes for Alain Jardelat:

An Alain Jardelat and his wife Marie Illic left Lorient, Brittany, France, 13 August 1720 bound for Louisiana. They were listed in the passenger list of the Gironde as laborers for the concessions of Messieurs Mezieres and Desmarches. They were listed as husband and wife, no children. Mezieres and Desmarches had a concession in Biloxi, but it is not known where the ship landed in New France nor where they worked. They were in New Orleans by 1726 when their daughter Marie, four years old, was buried. Alain Jardelat and his wife were living in New Orleans on Rue St. Anne during the New Orleans censuses of 1725, 1727, 1731 and 1732. A son, Nicolas, 8 mos. old, was buried in 1731. In the census records they had one or two children, so they must have had other children besides Nicolas and Marie.

Their son Pierre was born about 1733 in New Orleans. His burial information gives his parents as Pedro Jardelas and Maria Querlque - the names were in Spanish by then as Spain was in control at that time. Pierre's father was married to a Marie Querique/Querlque. The spellings of her name as Illic, Guerique, Querlque are close enough to be misspellings of her name. It is possible that Alain had a brother Pierre who could have been Pierre's father, but the fact that Pierre's mother's name was so close to the name of Alain's wife makes that unlikely. There were no other Jardelats that I have found at the time in Louisiana. Alain probably went by more than one name, not unusual at that time.

An Allain Jardelas is listed as one of the Louisiana Troops, discharged Oct. 1, 1750. He would have been about 50. Alain would have been the right age to be Pierre's father; he had children around the time Pierre was born in 1733; he was married to a Marie Guerique and Pierre's father was married to a Marie Querique/Querlque. Allain was in the military. Pierre was in the military at Arkansas Post. These facts lead me to believe that the Alain in the census, the Allain, discharged from the Louisiana Troops, and Pedro Jardelas, the name given for the father of Pierre, b. ca. 1733, are all the same person - Alain Jardelat.

In the burial information for their son, Pierre, in 1798, it was noted that his parents, Pedro and Marie, were "of Cape Corentin (?) in Brittiany, European France." There is a Cape Cotentin in Normandy and a Carentan in Normandy but not in Brittany. Alain and Marie left on the ship Gironde from Lorient in Brittany.

Notes for Marie Guerique:

The name is transcribed as Querique, Querlque and Guerique in various records. Guerique comes from the burial records of two of her children, Marie and Nicolas, in Sacramental Records of the Roman Catholic Church of the Archdiocese of New Orleans, vol. 1, 1718-1750. Woods, Earl C. and Charles E. Nolan. New Orleans, Archdiocese of New Orleans, 1987. The other two spellings are found in two different records of the burial of her son Pierre, in Abstract of Catholic Register of Arkansas, 1764-1858. Comp. and Ed. by Dorothy Jones Core. Grand Prairie Historical Society, 1976. I have chosen to go with Guerique, the older record.

Notes for Marie Songy:

In the Index to St. Louis Cathedral Archives, by Forsyth, there is an entry for a marriage in the 1759-1762 marriage for Pierre Gerdella and Marie Sogny on p.63. Gerdella should be Jardelat and Sogny should be Songy. Songy was Marie's name when she married, but she went by Languedoc in subsequent records. Languedoc is most likely an alias, or "dit" name which was common among French emigrants to North America. It is possible that she took the name Languedoc because she came from that area of France. Songy seems to be the same as Saunier, Sonnier and Sogne.

In The Sacramental Records of the Roman Catholic Church of the Archdiocese of New Orleans, Vol. 2, 1751-1771, p.155, there is a baptismal abstract for Charlotte, dau of Pierre Jardelas and Marie Languedoc, 20 July 1766. The godparents are ___ Songy and Charlotte Rillieux [signs as Charlotte Songy] (SLC, B5, 138). Another abstract in vol. 2, p.213, lists as sponsors at a baptism for Anne Charlotte Mouton: Pierre Songy, militia officer, and Charlotte Rillieux, spouse of Joseph Songy, scrivener (SLC, B5, 109). Charlotte Rillieux is the wife of Joseph Songy. Pierre may be a brother of Joseph and both may be brothers of Marie Songy (Sogny) / Languedoc.

Notes for Louis Jardelat:

Louis Jardelat was an experienced hunter in trader in the area of Arkansas Post. He owned an acre of land at the Post, along with his trading house, both of which he sold to Jacob Bright & Co., a trading house, sometime before 1806. His wife Augustina Valliere died in 1805. Louis, on a trip up the Arkansas River, with Jacob Bright and others, in August 1806, to find a spot for a trading post, was shot and killed, most likely by Choctaw Indians.

He was born ca. 1761 in Mallorca, Spain<sup>96,97</sup>.

More About Charlotte Jardelat:

Other Spellings: Carlota

Notes for Josepf Reynes:

In The notarial acts of Estevan de Quiñones, 1785-1786, by Elizabeth Becker Gianelloni.

[Baton Rouge?, 1966], there is a marriage application on p.46 for Joseph Renes and Carlota. The date of the application is 17 January 1786. His parents are listed as Juan Renes and Catalina Morel. Joseph is 25, a native of Mallorca where he was baptized at the Parish of San Pedro of Mallorca. He is a resident of New Orleans. Carlota is 16 - although this age conflicts with a birth date given in her baptismal record of 1766. Her name is transcribed as Tardelat instead of Jardelat.

One online researcher gives his death date as 24 Jun 1824, and place of death as Paris. Burial was at Pere Lachaise Cemetery in Paris. She also gives his birth or baptism as 6 Mar 1758, St. Bartholemu Parish, Soller, Mallorca. This information has not been confirmed.

Census 2: 31 Dec 1796, Arkansas Post, Arkansas<sup>107</sup>

Notes for Etienne le Vasseur:

Etienne first marriage was to Marie LaRose in 1792 but in the 1793 census she is listed under Estanislas Vasseur as his wife. They have one child. I think this is a mistake and Estanislas is Etienne. In the 1791 census Etienne is listed with Marie, his wife, and they are living with his father, Estanislas, and his brother, Francois. Never, in any of the censuses, are Etienne and Estanislas (Jr.) ever mentioned together. I don't know if it was written down wrong originally or transcribed wrong, but my guess is that Estanislas (son of Estanislas) and Etienne are the same person, and that Marie LaRose was married to Etienne.

Etienne is also referred to as Etienne Victoire. In October 1792, Etienne Victoire Le Vasseur is Godfather to a child at a baptism. At the marriage of his sister Therese in 1792, he is listed with his brother Francois as Etienne Victor.
